

CAPSULA

Santa Rosa (Vicious Circle Avril 2016)

Martin Guevara – guitar vocals
Coni Lisica – bass, vocals
Guantxe – drums, percussion

CAPSULA est d'abord un couple totalement Rock 'n' Roll par Martin Guevara, le frontman guitariste chanteur et de sa femme Coni à la basse. Accompagné de Guantxe à la batterie, Capsula c'est une énorme vague de sons pourris et sauvages des années 70, du glam au garage (pensez Bowie et T-Rex) avec un souffle de psychédéisme d'Amérique du Sud d'où ils sont originaire.

Leur énergie brute et live sonique vont vous attraper à coup sur. Ils sont passés maîtres du mélange des sons des différentes décennies. Post-punk, Kraut, Garage, psyché, pop Sweet, riffs lourds, tout est relié à travers leur musique. Si vous ne le croyez pas, vérifiez leur histoire: Né en Argentine, ils déménagé en Europe pour faire le tour du monde. Ils ont pris leur nom de la chanson de David Bowie "Space Oddity" et "The Jean Genie", sans savoir que des années plus tard, ils allaient travailler avec le cerveau créatif de T-Rex derrière la console et le célèbre producteur de Bowie, Tony Visconti.

David Fricke (Rolling Stone Magazine) a exprimé son illumination à propos de Capsula:

"Here is garage-glam heaven on a platter: Tony Visconti, who produced hot glitter for David Bowie and T. Rex 40-plus years ago, doing it again with the fine trio Capsula, from Bilbao, Spain. Visconti sets Capsula's dynamic compression of the Who, the Cramps and Sonic Youth in a high tide of psychedelia (long echo, watery tremolo, massed spires of treble guitar) that makes "Riverside of Love" and "Trails of Senselessness" sound like a fresh after burn of the '67 Pretty Things and an acid-charged X. "You gotta be free," guitarist Martin Guevara and bassist Coni Duchess, Capsula's founding couple, sing in "Blind." They're already flying"

Les CAPSULA sont constamment en tournée pour diffuser leurs chansons. Vous pouvez les voir dans des festivals à travers l'Europe (Primavera Sound, Bilbao BBK Live, Jazzaldia, Nox orae et plus), en Amérique du Sud, ou au Etats-Unis (Austin Psych Fest, 35 Denton, Savannah Stopover, Filtre Culture Collide, SXSW, CMJ et plus ) où ils vont tous les ans, sillonner le pays d'une côte à l'autre et notamment en 2015 où ils ont assuré la première partie de Os Mutantes sur 22 concerts.

Le 11ème album de CAPSULA "Santa Rosa" (Vicious Circle) sortira le 29 avril 2016. Un véritable orage électrique.

“On this night, the crowd was so enthralled with each sonic manipulation that by what was supposed to be the end of Capsula’s set, the band had built such a fever pitch in the crowd that the demand for not one, not two, but THREE encore songs was acquiesced. This would be legit encores, by the way, not the required-in-the-rider encores the heavy-weights pantomime at Staples Center.” - Capsula at The Troubadour, Los Angeles May 2, 2013
